The Gay People of Boston University ( aka: G.P.B.U.) has existed at Boston University since 1969. The momentum of the organization has increased since the formation of the group. We are entering our second decade of high energy, genuine concern, and active involvement within the Boston University gay community.

We recognize our responsibility to all homosexual and heterosexual students. Gay People of Boston University is concerned with educating the University community about all aspects of homosexuality as well as providing a social outlet and atmosphere for gay students at Boston University. We also exist as a resource base and provide referrals and information about the Boston area homosexual community, nationally based organization and support system available to gay people.

Our location is in the basement of the George Sherman Union, 775 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, specifically in the Commuter Lounge which is located between the hallway leading to the post office and the Women's Centre Office, opposite the Games Room.

WHEN TO GET IN TOUCH WITH US.

During the previous academic year we had been available approximately seventy - two hours per month. This year we have some staff members accessible to you on a daily basis roughly between 11:00 and 2:00 p.m.. For our precise hours note the shedule posted on the window directly to the right of our door.

Up to the present time we have not been able to afford a telephone of our own. However, we can be reached through the Student Activity Office at the following number:
617*353*3637.

Presently, we are able to serve the Boston University community in three ways:

I. We have established our own literary collection which contains approximately 100 books, covering every aspect and expression of homosexuality. Our books can be taken out for a period of four weeks.

II. G.P.B.U. holds weekly meetings every Tuesday in the basement of the School of Theology, 745 Commonwealth Avenue, in the Hartmann Lounge, between 8:00 and 11:00 p.m. There is an informal, topical discussion followed by a social hour.

III. The G.P.B.U. has a speakers bureau which is trained to assist the faculty and residence hall staff of Boston University in clarifying issues of homosexuality to students.

September 1980

Greetings,

Final plans are now being made for the first STATEWIDE CONFERENCE FOR LESBIAN AND GAY RIGHTS to be held at the Sainte Claire Hotel on October 10, 11 and 12, 1980 in San Jose, California.

WE NEED YOUR PARTICIPATION TO MAKE THIS CONFERENCE A SUCCESS!

A registration form (DEADLINE IS SEPTEMBER 25, 1980) is enclosed for your convenience. PLEASE send it in as soon as possible.

The March Committee for Lesbian and Gay Rights/L.A. and Lambda Association of San Jose, have called this conference for the purpose of bringing together a strong and broad cross-section of our community around the state. Plans are for the Conference to focus on:

1. Formation of a Statewide Coalition;
2. Work on passage of strong statewide protective legislation in employment and housing;
3. Proposals for the National Conference for Lesbian and Gay Rights scheduled for Spring, 1981; and
4. How to involve more people in the Lesbian and Gay Rights Movement.

Workshops are being planned for the entire weekend. We would like your suggestions or input concerning topics for workshops. We are asking each organization to furnish facilitators for any workshop they are proposing.

Proposals for the conference should be submitted no later than October 1st to Lambda Association of San Jose, P.O. Box 26044, San Jose CA 95159.

Costs for the conference are listed on the enclosed Registration Form. Conference fee is $15.00 per person; hotel rooms are $30.00 per nite (double occupancy) - we will try to provide free housing but space is limited, so try to bring a sleeping bag; and child care will be provided on a donation basis.

There are a variety of restaurants in the downtown San Jose area, and a very small coffee shop in the hotel. We have planned a luncheon (cost is $6.00 per person) for Saturday, October 11th at the hotel. Reservations MUST be made in advance.

There will be no limit on the number of individual participants, however, the organizers of this Conference see a need to build a co-sexual, multi-national movement and have established the following voting criteria:

Maximum of three (3) voting delegates per organization, composed of:

One male, one female and one Third World participant.

For instance:

|----------------------|----------------|
| If you send:         | You will have: |
| 3 white males        | 1 vote         |
| 3 white females (or) | 1 vote         |

HOWEVER, if you send:

|                          |         |
|--------------------------|---------|
| 3 Third-World males (or) | 2 votes |
| 3 Third-World females    | 2 votes |

OR, if you send:

A Third-World or white male, a third-world or white female, a white male or female (IF the other two are BOTH third world), you will have three (3) votes. Please keep in mind we are striving for some equitability in representation.

All individual participants (those not representing organizations) may apply to the Credentials Committee upon registration for voting status. Geographical determinations will be used to determine this status.

Also attached is a PROPOSED AGENDA for the conference. Please submit any additional proposals, changes, suggestions, etc. to Lambda Association of San Jose as soon as possible, but not later than October 1, 1980.

Feel free to contact us at any time for additional information.

Hope to see you in San Jose on October 10th!

In Pride and Unity,

California Statewide Conference Committee

We are marching in a peaceful, legal parade in which everyone who agrees with us has been invited. We who are marshals have a responsibility to make sure this demonstration is a success and goes smoothly. Our job is to make sure the parade follows the planned route, take care of any problems or illnesses that participants might have, protect any equipment from harm, and neutralize anyone who might want to disrupt our march or rally.

The following outline will help organize this effort, using policies and methods that stem from the labor movement, the civil rights movement, and the antiwar movement.

REMEMBER-- the main idea today is a peaceful, successful march and rally. We're here to keep hassles to a minimum for all of us.

MARCH ROUTE

GATHER IN COPLEY SQUARE

MARCH BEGINS: DARTMOUTH ST to COMMONWEALTH AVE
RIGHT ONTO COMMONWEALTH to ARLINGTON ST
RIGHT ONTO CAMBRIDGE ST to TREMONT ST
RIGHT ONTO TREMONT to BOYLSTON ST
INTO THE COMMON AT BOYLSTON
THROUGH THE COMMON TO PARKMAN BANDSTAND.

RALLY AT PARKMAN BANDSTAND IN THE COMMON

This is OUR legal route. Being strictly technical, any other group that marches along this route is parading without a permit. We would strongly discourage those who oppose what we are marching for from trying to march with us or disrupt the march. While we would use all non-violent means at our disposal to convince opponents of that, as a last resort, we can use this legal technicality.

FIRST AID

Project Place has agreed to have their first aid van present at the march and rallies. Unless marshals or participants are trained at first aid, they should NOT attempt it. You could really hurt somebody.

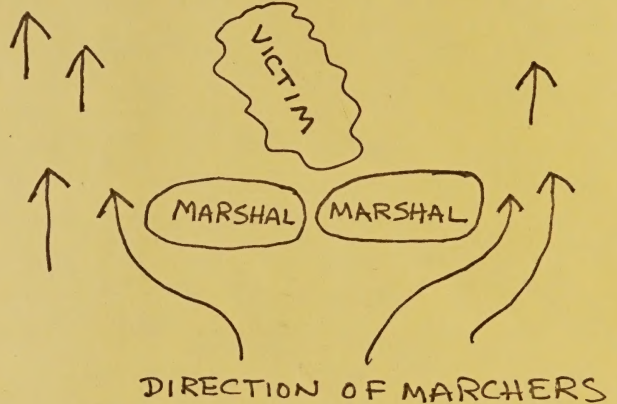

Our job as marshals has two parts: first, if a person faints, or twists their ankle, or any of the accidents that can happen to a marcher, we must be on hand to get them help. Secondly, we must keep the march moving and avoid a knot of curious people. A crowd gathering could tie up the march, prevent help from getting through, and create a general scene. We can do this easily by having two marshals in between the victim and the direction of traffic, and having one marshal get help:

REMEMBER:

KEEP PEOPLE CLEAR
OF THE AREA!

ASSURE THEM THAT HELP IS ON THE WAY.

DO NOT MOVE
THE VICTIM !!

DISRUPTION IN THE MARCH

If someone comes into the march and tries to disrupt it, a marshal should first go up and just ask them to leave. While this is going on, the march will continue to move forward, leaving the discussion behind. A second marshal standing near the discussion can help keep the march moving. If necessary, a group of marshals will lock arms, making a circle around the disrupters, to help keep the discussion friendly. If necessary, that circle should move together out of the march, sweeping the disrupter with it.

This same procedure can be followed with any isolated group or person within the the march at any point.

Physical contact with the disrupter should be avoided, as it complicates things, opens one up to lawsuits, and could be painful. We do not really want the police to intervene in the march, nor do we want to give them reasons to.

However, if an individual becomes really obnoxious, a couple of large marshals, one under each arm, lifting upwards, and carrying outwards, will quickly take care of the problem, usually without further incidents. Be gentle, please, our main goal is keeping the march moving safely.

SIDELINE CRITICS - HECKLERS

Often groups of hecklers will gather at the side and shout nasty things into the march.

This can be easily dealt with.

A line of marshals should stand between the march and the hecklers, keeping the opposing sides apart, keeping the march going smoothly, and tempers from flaring.

Marchers should be told by marshals to ignore the hecklers.

A good loud chant from the crowd, encouraged by the marshals, will demoralize most hecklers and they will go away. Don't try to engage the hecklers in purposeful conversation--if you think it will shut them up, you can talk to them about the weather, but don't get involved.

REALLY NASTY BUSINESS

If any missile is thrown into the crowd, don't fool around. The police are there to protect us, and get them on their job. But don't leave it at that. Keep the march going, doing whatever is necessary to route around to avoid potential trouble. Form a line of marshals to divert the march away from the object.

If anything lands in your area that looks hot or like it might explode, clear the area quickly. DO NOT TOUCH THE OBJECT. If it's only a smoke bomb, kick it away, but DON'T TOUCH IT. It's really hot and could hurt you.

SPLIT OFFS

If anyone tries to lead a split off march, let them. It's their right to leave. But as soon as they are off the march route, form a line to keep the main march going as planned. If people ask, simply explain that you are marking out the route of the official march, that the people who left wanted to, they are not on the legal route. If anyone wants to join the split off, it is their right, we cannot take any responsibility for anything that they do. They are not under the protection of either marshals or the law.

OTHER INFO

Keep your armband visible.

Marshals should be organized in groups of four. Stay within sight of your other group members at all times, including during the speaking. Work together with your group when problems come up.

Meeting, Monday Evening 8:00 p.m., with gay community leaders to discuss the forthcoming "Teach In" scheduled for August 20 or August 27, 1977. Present were: Tom Ziniti, 901 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (492-1808); Doug Kandoll (MCC - 178 Chestnut St., #3, Chelsea 02150 (884-3041); Howard Perry, 138 W. Concord St., Boston 02118 (353-0869); Gary Lovering 10 Corona Street, Dorchester (H:265-9165, W 353-2809) who had called the meeting; Ken Withers (BAHR) 1024 Bennington St. E. Boston (H:567-4494, W:542-5188); Daniel Greco, 11 Queensbury Street, Peter Maroon (BAHR); and Marge Ragona (MCC) 44 Gartland Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass. 02130 (H:524-1727, W:956-5660). Marge Ragona chaired the meeting.

Gary Lovering had called this group and others not present to discuss the feasibility of a "Teach IN" to be held either August 20 or 27th at Arlington Street Church (if it is available, Peter Maroon to find out this possibility) for an entire Saturday, with two sessions (morning and afternoon) and an evening rally to support Gay Legislation. It would be proposed as an educational event to pass House Bill 3676, to stimulate involvement in gay lobbying efforts, and to act as a stimulus to get the bill passed. Many people were for the effort: Joe Martin, Neil Miller, Ann McGuire, Elain Noble (fast); Barney Frank was opposed to the "Teach IN" but did not say why. Women in the NOW Lesbian Task Force would also be contacted for their support as well, and women and feminist speakers would be part of the Teach IN. Howard Perry suggested that the Human Rights Coalition of Provincetown might want to raise some money to support the Teach-In. Peter Maroon said that the Dade County Coalition might help us since they had some $20,000 left over, and they now had people with expertise available and might send someone to us to advise us on the pitfalls and successes of such an effort.

A program was offered which suggested the following:

9:00-10:00 Registration

10-11:30 Workshops

(Discrimination and Oppression)
(Law and the Military) (Leaders: Matlovich, Holly Ladd)
(Medical and Psychiatric)(Larry Hartmann, Richard Pillard)

(Gay Lifestyles)

3:30-5:00 Meeting of New England Gay Groups and strategy talks

an interesting experience

6:00-7:30 Supper (not provided)

7:30-9:00 Rally with entertainment and speakers

Speakers suggested: Jean O'Leary
Ginny Vida NGTF
Ginny Apuzzo
Bob Herrick

Lenny Matlovich
Elaine Noble

Entertainers Suggested:
Deadly Nightshade
Donna Price
Cambridge Community Folk Dancers
Balkan Musicians

Others would be enlisted both speakers and entertainers, as well as workshop leaders. The following persons had responsibility for making contacts:

Politics: Peter Maroon
Religion: Marge Ragona
Discrimination: Dan Greco
Law: Ken Withers
Medical and Psychiatric: Ken Withers
Silent Gay Majority: Howard Perry
Women's Issues: Marge Ragona
Third World and Black: Gary Lovering
Gay Lifestyles: Howard Perry
Civil Rights and Unions: Gary Lovering

Dan Greco and Jeff Morris are to seek out seed money. In addition, a town meeting to be held at Arlington Street Church on August 1 was proposed, and voted for unanimously. Peter Maroon and Tom Ziniti with Howard Perry and Gary Lovering are to get flyers out. Marge Ragona will be out of town as will Ken Withers for the next week and unable to assist with the Town Meeting. Ken contributed $15.00 to the flyers, however, and Peter Maroon would complete the flyers and have them sent over to Copy-Quick for reproduction. Another planning meeting will be held later in the month and input from the various other groups will be sought at the Town Meeting-

Submitted,

Marge Ragona

April 22, 1977

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This mailing contains important information concerning plans for the celebration of Gay and Lesbian Pride Week and Christopher Street Liberation Day in New York City this year from June 19-26. Since many of the plans involve deadlines and other time limitations, we ask that you familiarize yourself and members of your organization with the enclosed details as soon as possible.

CSLDC '77 currently consists of representatives from over 30 diverse Lesbian and Gay organizations and businesses from the metropolitan New York area, as well as independents. We hope to provide an on-going source of energy for the community throughout the year. Our immediate purpose, however, is to co-ordinate plans and schedules for this year's Gay and Lesbian Pride Week activities.

1. Parade information is enclosed on a separate sheet. PLEASE NOTE DEADLINES for group, float, and vehicle registration.

2. Rally will be held on the Great Lawn of Central Park (entrance off West 81st Street) immediately following the parade; i.e., about 2:30 P.M. on Sunday, June 26th.

3. CSLDC '77 will issue an official Calendar brochure at the end of May listing all activities--regular as well as special events--planned by any metropolitan area Lesbian or Gay organization or business for June 19-26. This calendar will be mailed free to groups nationally and distributed free at the information booth in Sheridan Square that week.

INFORMATION FOR THIS CALENDAR MUST BE IN OUR HANDS NO LATER THAN MAY 15!!

Please mail to the address above and mark "CALENDAR" on the envelope to facilitate routing.

4. If you are not planning to participate in the parade or rally, it is still important that you fill out the enclosed form and return it in order to receive Lesbian and Gay Pride Week and CSLDC '77 information. Your visible support assists us in negotiating with police, city officials, etc.

5. The Christopher Street Liberation Day parade and rally cost money. Our expenses--partly refundable--in permit fees and bonds, will total $5,400.00, which must be raised by June 20th. In addition, CSLDC '77 itself needs money for postage, stationery, and other expenses. We are asking all organizations to consider fund-raising efforts on behalf of CSLDC '77--either as special projects, as part of on-going activities, or as blanket donations. Such fund-raisers are entitled to free publicity providing CSLDC '77 is made aware of the activity in time to publicize it.

Sincerely,

Outreach Committee
CSLDC '77

Gay Pride Week Committee Meeting

Monday May 9, 1977

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 PM. The following topics and reports were to be discussed:

1. Publicity Committee; 2. Saturday Meeting Committee; 3. Parade and Rally Committee; 4. Workshops Committee; 5. Fund Raising Committee; 6. Child Care, Housing and Participation Committee; 7. Neighborhood Meetings; 8. Communication with Community; 9. Town Meeting on Gay Rights.

Results to date:

Publicity Committee: Communication with the media regarding publicity has been divided among members of the committee. Any material for publication will be reviewed by the whole committee prior to release. The straight media will be requested to cover the Week. Leaflets will be made for the bars to distribute.

It was suggested that next year a mailing be done to the various gay groups prior to the opening of the Gay Pride Week Committee meetings.

Saturday Meeting Committee: This committee will be for those interested in contributing to Gay Pride Week, but who are unable to attend mid-week meetings due to geographical distance. The Saturday Meeting Committee has proposed that the Publicity Committee make up flyers to advertise this particular committee meeting since a mailing at this time would be impossible.

Parade and Rally Committee: The committee has contacted the bars in Boston regarding participation in the Week. Most said they wanted to and it was suggested that they might sponsor floats covering various periods in gay history.

Regarding floats: it was decided that the floats would be organization-generated, thereby eliminating any possible "star system".

The routing of the parade will be the same as last year's, except that the march will not pass through Arts Fair on Boston Common at the very end.

Styx has volunteered to serve coffee and doughnuts at Coply Square before the parade gets underway. It was suggested that a Clean-up Subcommittee be created to deal with this.

There is to be an M.C. and speaker (one male, one female) and it was recommended that the various gay organizations have booths around the bandstand to advertise their activities. Possible speakers mentioned and M.C. candidates were: Charlie Shively, Joe Martin, Brian McNaught, Jackie Mack and Ann Maguire. These people will be contacted to sound out as to the possibility of their participating. Beyond this the issue was tabled until next week.

Workshop/Program Committee: This committee brought up the following possible subjects for workshops:

1. Legal; 2. Couples workshop on radical politics; 3. Gay culture workshop; 4. Tykes and Dykes (lesbian mothers) workshop; 5. Music program; 6. Poetry evening; 7. A gay theatre evening; 8. Summer solstice ritual; 9. Film workshop

Fund Raising Committee: The dance at B.U. will be given at the end of Gay Pride Week to establish a working fund for next year's activities. The Committee will attempt to contact either a gay dance band or a straight non-offensive one. Other suggestions for fund raising were 1. a softball game; 2. approaching the bars.

Child Care, Housing and Participation Committee: The Committee is going to work on the arranging of places to stay for out-of-town visitors and child care during theatre evenings, the parade, etc.

The Committee will try to contact all gay groups, especially women and third world gays. Older Gays, we were told, feel they are too few in number to participate as an organization.

Neighborhood Meetings Committee: Cambridgeport and East Boston have requested neighborhood meetings. The Workshop/Program Committee has shouldered this.

Communication to Community: This Committee suggested that the Gay Pride Committee as a whole talk up the events planned. Also, that those working in the bars mention it to their patrons.

Town Meeting on Gay Rights: BHRA had suggested this topic in conjunction with gay legislation. It was asked by people present if two meetings could be held before Gay Pride Week so as to emphasize its significance. The Workshop/Programs Committee volunteered to speak to BHRA about their being represented at the Gay Pride Week Committee meetings.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 PM.

- (a) if the named insured is designated in the declarations as an individual, the person so designated but only with respect to the conduct of a business of which he is the sole proprietor, and the spouse of the named insured with respect to the conduct of such a business;
- (b) if the named insured is designated in the declarations as a partnership or joint venture, the partnership or joint venture so designated and any partner or member thereof but only with respect to his liability as such;

- (d) any person (other than an employee of the named insured) or organization while acting as real estate manager for the named insured; and
- (e) with respect to the operation, for the purpose of locomotion upon a public highway, of mobile equipment registered under any motor vehicle registration law,
  - (i) an employee of the named insured while operating any such equipment in the course of his employment, and
  - (ii) any other person while operating with the permission of the named insured any such equipment registered in the name of the named insured and any person or organization legally responsible for such operation, but only if there is no other valid and collectible insurance available, either on a primary or excess basis, to such person or organization;provided that no person or organization shall be an insured under this paragraph (e) with respect to:
  - (1) bodily injury to any fellow employee of such person injured in the course of his employment, or
  - (2) property damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of or occupied by the named insured or the employer of any person described in subparagraph (ii).

This insurance does not apply to bodily injury or property damage arising out of the conduct of any partnership or joint venture of which the insured is a partner or member and which is not designated in this policy as a named insured.

III. LIMITS OF LIABILITY

Regardless of the number of (1) insureds under this policy, (2) persons or organizations who sustain bodily injury or property damage, or (3) claims made or suits brought on account of bodily injury or property damage, the company's liability is limited as follows:

Coverage A—The total liability of the company for all damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury sustained by one or more persons as the result of any one occurrence shall not exceed the limit of bodily injury liability stated in the schedule as applicable to "each occurrence".

Coverage B—The total liability of the company for all damages because of all property damage sustained by one or more persons or organizations as the result of any one occurrence shall not exceed the limit of property damage liability stated in the schedule as applicable to "each occurrence".

Coverages A and B—For the purpose of determining the limit of the company's liability, all bodily injury and property damage arising out of continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general conditions shall be considered as arising out of one occurrence.

IV. ADDITIONAL DEFINITION

When used in reference to this insurance (including endorsements forming a part of the policy):

"insured premises" means (1) the premises designated in the declarations, (2) premises alienated by the named insured (other than premises constructed for sale by the named insured), if possession has been relinquished to others, and (3) premises as to which the named insured acquires ownership or control and reports his intention to insure such premises under this policy and no other within 30 days after such acquisition; and includes the ways immediately adjoining such premises on land.

V. POLICY TERRITORY

This insurance applies only to bodily injury or property damage which occurs within the policy territory.

1. Premium: All premiums payable by the insured under this policy shall be paid to the company's rules, rates, rating plans, premiums and minimum premiums applicable to the insurance afforded herein.

Premium designated in this policy as "advance premium" is a deposit premium only which shall be credited to the amount of the earned premium due at the end of the policy period. At the close of each period (or part thereof terminating with the end of the policy period) designated in the declarations as the audit period the earned premium shall be computed for such period and, upon notice thereof to the named insured, shall become due and payable. If the total earned premium for the policy period is less than the premium previously paid, the company shall return to the named insured the unearned portion paid by the named insured.

The named insured shall maintain records of such information as is necessary for premium computation, and shall send copies of such records to the company at the end of the policy period and at such times during the policy period as the company may direct.

2. Inspection and Audit: The company shall be permitted but not obligated to inspect the named insured's property and operations at any time. Neither the company's right to make inspections nor the making thereof nor any report thereon shall constitute an undertaking, on behalf of or for the benefit of the named insured or others, to determine or warrant that such property or operations are safe or healthful, or are in compliance with any law, rule or regulation.

The company may examine and audit the named insured's books and records at any time during the policy period and extensions thereof and within three years after the final termination of this policy, as far as they relate to the subject matter of this insurance.

3. Financial Responsibility Laws: When this policy is certified as proof of financial responsibility for the future under the provisions of any motor vehicle financial responsibility law, such insurance as is afforded by this policy for bodily injury liability or for property damage liability shall comply with the provisions of such law to the extent of the coverage and limits of liability required by such law. The insured agrees to reimburse the company for any payment made by the company which it would not have been obligated to make under the terms of this policy except for the agreement contained in this paragraph.

4. Insured's Duties in the Event of Occurrence, Claim or Suit:

- (a) In the event of an occurrence, written notice containing particulars sufficient to identify the insured and also reasonably obtainable information with respect to the time, place and circumstances thereof, and the names and addresses of the injured and of available witnesses, shall be given by or for the insured to the company or any of its authorized agents as soon as practicable.
- (b) If claim is made or suit is brought against the insured, the insured shall immediately forward to the company every demand, notice, summons or other process received by him or his representative.
- (c) The insured shall cooperate with the company and, upon the company's request, assist in making settlements, in the conduct of suits and in enforcing any right of contribution or indemnity against any person or organization who may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage with respect to which insurance is afforded under this policy; and the insured shall attend hearings and trials and assist in securing and giving evidence and obtaining the attendance of witnesses. The insured shall not, except at his own cost, voluntarily make any payment, assume any obligation or incur any expense other than for first aid to others at the time of accident.

5. Action Against Company: No action shall lie against the company unless, as a condition precedent thereto, there shall have been full compliance with all of the terms of this policy, nor until the amount of the insured's obligation to pay shall have been finally determined either by judgment against the insured after actual trial or by written agreement of the insured, the claimant and the company.

Any person or organization or the legal representative thereof who has secured such judgment or written agreement shall thereafter be entitled to recover under this policy to the extent of the insurance afforded by this policy. No person or organization shall have any right under this policy to join the company as a party to any action against the insured to determine the insured's liability, nor shall the company be impleaded by the insured or his legal representative. Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate shall not relieve the company of any of its obligations hereunder.

7. Subrogation: In the event of any payment under this policy, the company shall be subrogated to all the insured's rights of recovery therefor against any person or organization and the insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The insured shall do nothing after loss to prejudice such rights.

8. Changes: Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or by any other person shall not effect a waiver or a change in any part of this policy or estop the company from asserting any right under the terms of this policy; nor shall the terms of this policy be waived or changed, except by endorsement issued to form a part of this policy.

9. Assignment: Assignment of interest under this policy shall not bind the company until its consent is endorsed hereon; if, however, the named insured shall die, such insurance as is afforded by this policy shall apply (1) to the named insured's legal representative, as the named insured, but only while acting within the scope of his duties; as such, and (2) with respect to the property of the named insured, to the person having proper temporary custody thereof, as insured, but only until the appointment and qualification of the legal representative.

10. Three Year Policy: If this policy is issued for a period of three years any limit of the company's liability stated in this policy as "aggregate" shall apply separately to each consecutive annual period thereof.

11. Cancellation: This policy may be cancelled by the named insured by surrender thereof to the company or any of its authorized agents or by mailing to the company written notice stating when thereafter the cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the company by mailing to the named insured at the address shown in this policy, written notice stating when not less than ten days thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The time of surrender or the effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the named insured or by the company shall be equivalent to mailing.

If the named insured cancels, earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table and procedure. If the company cancels, earned premium shall be computed pro rata. Premium adjustment may be made either at the time cancellation is effected or as soon as practicable after cancellation becomes effective, but payment or tender of unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.

12. Declarations: By acceptance of this policy, the named insured agrees that the statements in the declarations are his agreements and representations, that this policy is issued in reliance upon the truth of such representations and that this policy embodies all agreements existing between himself and the company or any of its agents relating to this insurance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Investors' Insurance Company of America has caused this policy to be signed by its president and a secretary at Teaneck, N. J., and countersigned on the declarations page by a duly authorized representative of the company.

mer," shows how the World War II situation eroticized the U.S. population and got a lot of men out of their hometowns and into places where a lot of casual gay sex happened on both coasts of the U.S., where they were mobilizing to go Europe or the Pacific. In Germany at the same time the situation was severely repressed. I don't think German soldiers were doing those kinds of things, or experiencing the kind of geographical and psychic move away from the restrictions at home.

So there were two solutions: drastically curtail your sexlife; and give yourself a cover, so if you were arrested you could say you were a good family man. This is how the Kaiser Wilhelm got off, too, in the Eulenberg scandal 2 — it appeared that he must be straight because he was married and had seven children. But the Kaiser was gay.

Joe: What do you mean he was gay? That he had sex with men, or that he identified himself, at least privately, as a homosexual?

Jim: If we look at him in ahistorical terms, we must come to the conclusion that he was a gay man. And yet he was not a gay-identified person. He totally lacked that sense of gay identity and community which exists today, and his aggressive macho style compensated for a basic softness. What he did have was a strong camaraderie with an entourage of aristocrats whose gayness is irrefutable. They knew they were different from other people.

Joe: They did have a sense of difference?

Jim: Definitely. They thought they were better than other people. They were very much like the Community of the Special.<sup>3</sup> They said they were people of greater sensitivity, artistic temperament. The leaders of the Community of the Special, I must point out, were all married: Benedict Friedländer and Adolf Brand were married, and they were both fathers. Their idea had to do with a revival of classical Greek ideals which included being married, raising children, and also carrying on a gay sexual or erotic relationship on the side.

Joe: That's a very patriarchal self-identity. It's a way of understanding homosexual experience in positive (or non-sinful) terms without breaking with the terms of traditional masculinity. Some points from your talk make more sense to me in this light. On the one hand, that Brand and the Community of the Special opposed Hirschfeld and his theory of a third sex because they found the third sex type to be too feminine; and that they opposed the German feminist movement out of fears of feminization, whereas Hirschfeld supported it. And on the other hand, I can better understand the shift in the soft-porn images in the Community of the Special's magazine, Der Eigene, during the late 1920s and early 1930s: from the Mediterranean types portrayed by Von Gloeden, in classical or pastoral settings, to the decidedly Aryan types in militaristic poses. They contributed, as you said in your talk, to a pro-fascist ethos in part because their self-identity was patriarchal to begin with.

I mention this because I think some of the audience at the talk made a connection between these soft-porn images and what I'd call the current "butchification" of gay male images and styles of presentation. I'm uneasy with this analogy, because I think it ignores the context in which the images are presented. The butchness of the clone, for me, is part of a gay self-identity which is closer to Hirschfeld than to Brand and Friedländer. There is not to say that we don't need to think about what butchification means, but that we can't do that in such a facile way. Were you making an implicit reference to contemporary gay male styles when you talked about that shift?

Jim: The macho style that's replaced the hippie look or whatever within the gay male community over the past decade or so is only superficially parallel to the change in the look of gay male porn prior to the Nazi period. There is no specifically fascist look, although certainly the Nazis did promote clean-cut, muscular style with blond hair and blue eyes. But it would be a mistake to take that look in isolation and label it fascist. Wolfgang Fritz Haug, a West German theorist, has pointed out that "fascism" is derived from fascis, the symbol of authority in ancient Rome, and ultimately from fascis, which means "bundle." The fascist system derived its power from tying together a wide variety of cultural strands that existed within German culture, and its strength lay in this bundling, not in any one element. Many elements were taken over from the German left, and they were the opposite of fascist. The Nazis have tainted a certain look, but it wasn't a fascist look per se.

Joe: Let's talk about the Berlin subculture of the 1920s, and how it was suppressed by the Nazis. You said in your talk that Berlin had 20 lesbian bars and clubs, and 100 gay bars and clubs. That boggles the imagination.

Jim: There were amazing things going on in the gay scene in Berlin at the time when Christopher Isherwood moved there, in pursuit — as he puts it — of sexual freedom. At one New Years Eve ball, for example, one man who wanted to impress the crowd arrived riding an elephant. I don't think that's been topped even in New York City.

It's a sociological problem to figure out where the qualitative shift came in the Berlin subculture, turning it into a community. There was certainly a quantitative change, because already by the turn of the century Berlin had 20 gay men's bars; lesbians met at home in literary salons. Those also constituted a kind of public space; the salon as a type of sheltered public sphere. The spaces that homosexuals started creating go way back in Germany, as they do in England, to the eighteenth century or earlier.

Perhaps we can make a distinction between a ghetto and a subculture. The ghetto in Germany extends uninterruptedly from the eighteenth century to the present. The earliest cruising space documented in Germany is from 1500, in the public square next to the cathedral of Cologne. That was a ghetto, a world unto itself, at least by virtue of the late hour at which cruising took place. That ghetto persists as a form of finding and meeting others while the broader culture expands with bars and cafes, public spaces.

The gay ghetto expanded quantitatively, purely numerically in terms of the number of people involved, until there was a qualitative leap and a gay subculture emerged at about the turn of the century. This subculture went hand-in-hand with the creation of gay identity in a modern sense and with the organization of the early homosexual emancipation movement, bringing about a different type of interaction with the dominant culture that had not been possible for ghettoized gays. Nonetheless the ghetto continued to exist alongside or underneath the gay subculture, and the ghetto contained a lot of what we might call straight-identified homosexuals. They're closet cases, like the situation I described with the Kaiser. When does a closet case become a coffin case, someone who's never going to come out despite having the strongest desires? Then they fall into those delusions about being more gifted, more artistic, more sensitive than others, for they do have access to feelings that others — the straight majority — don't.

What I'm arguing for is a sociological distinction between ghetto, subculture, and community. The older forms persist even while the new ones take hold. After all, even Hirschfeld was tied in with the ghetto, since he cruised tearooms, but he was also the most important subcultural figure, the most prominent gay person in Germany. And during the 1920s, another qualitative shift from subculture to community began to take place in Germany. Again, it was a quantitative shift first and foremost, with the number of bars increasing dramatically, with the public discussion of gay issues achieving a new level, and especially with the appearance of a gay press — there were about twenty gay and lesbian periodicals in Germany in the twenties, at a time when there was nothing comparable in England, France, or America. The attempts to start gay periodicals in Paris and Chicago were stamped out by the police almost immediately. Periodicals meant the opening up of a new kind of public space for gay people, and they mean the creation of community.

When the Nazis came to power, they immediately halted all gay publications and the gay movement, which meant strangling off the community. They also raided gay bars, sending their patrons to concentration camps, and this crackdown almost meant the end of the subculture. What persisted during the Nazi period was the ostracized and hidden form of the gay ghetto. There continued to be the kind of secretive cruising that had gone on for centuries. People did meet each other, lover relationships did form throughout the Nazi period. But it was at the cost of gay people reghettoizing themselves into the smallest ghetto — the couple. It's interesting to consider what might have happened to gay community and the gay subculture, what forms they might have taken, if there had been resistance, but there wasn't any.

Joe: But why was there no resistance? If the sense of identity and community was stronger than ever before, and even close to what it is today, and if the gay movement had, as you said in your talk, become a mass movement in the 1920s, what was missing? You said in your book that there was a disturbing gap between collective and personal liberation. What did that mean in the context of Weimar Berlin? And how can we learn from that history?

Jim: Several factors were at work that hindered the development of gay antifascism. First of all, it was not a specifically gay problem, since the overall scope of antifascism was very limited indeed. Gay people could scarcely be expected to be more politically astute and more resistant than the general population, especially since they constituted a subculture within the dominant culture. So the question of the failure of resistance has to be posed in broader terms and the gays seen as just one component of it. The question as to why there was so little Jewish resistance is a tortured one that has also caused a lot of debate. Gay people faced the problem that the strongest force within the antifascist resistance, the socialists and the communists, had turned to denouncing the Nazis as sexual perverts, as homosexuals. There was little sympathy for the plight of gay people within the official antifascist resistance. After all, the Soviet paper Izvestia was trumpeting "Wipe out the homosexuals, and fascism will be eliminated." While the Nazis were busy decrying homosexuality as "sexual bolshevism," the communists were busy equating homosexuality and fascism. Gays were very isolated. And this was a situation that the overwhelming majority of homosexuals were used to, since most had never made it beyond the ghetto or subculture stage into the self-aware gay community. Even if the gay organizations of the twenties did have a membership of 50,000, that's a handful compared to the figure of 2.2 million. And so the majority sought individual solutions, just as they'd been into personal sexual liberation rather than collective liberation before the Nazis came to power.

History Lessons

Attacked by the right and the left, with a shaky basis of community feeling to begin with, gay people were unable to join or help create an antifascist alliance, and this is perhaps the most important lesson for today. We have to make the gay community as strong as possible, and we also have to seek alliances with other forces that are advancing progressive social change. I'm sure you know the famous quotation from Pastor Martin Niemöller: "When the Nazis came to arrest the communists, I was silent—I'm not a communist. When the Nazis came to arrest the socialists, I was silent—I'm not a socialist. When the Nazis came to arrest the Catholics, I was silent—I'm not a Catholic. And when they arrested me, there was nobody left to protest."

Notes

1. Paragraph 175 of the German legal code outlawed sodomy. Its repeal was the main focus of the gay movement led by Magnus Hirschfeld.
2. The Eulenberg Scandal began when the homosexuality of the closest advisor of Kaiser Wilhelm II, Philipp zu Eulenberg, was revealed in the German press in 1906. It led to a series of resignations, court trials, and parliamentary hearings which exposed the homosexuality of a number of men in the Kaiser's entourage. The events went on for over two years, and the homosexual emancipation movement became involved in the trials. Ultimately, it damaged the homosexual movement, ruined the careers of many aristocrats and officers, and led to a shift in Kaiser Wilhelm's policies in the direction of greater aggressiveness, thus contributing to the outbreak of World War I.
3. The Community of the Special was a gay organization founded in 1902 which aspired to a revival or renaissance of ancient Greek pederasty combined with marriage. It regarded itself as the cultural wing of the homosexual emancipation movement and eschewed the law-reform campaign of the movement's political wing.

CSLDC Responds

By Richard Drezen, Secretary, Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee, New York, NY.

The Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee (C.S.L.D.C.) of New York City wishes to respond to the article entitled "New Approach" to New York Pride Week Criticized" written by David France. Equal time please.

First some background on the Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee. C.S.L.D.C. is a coalition of gay and lesbian groups and individuals in metropolitan New York City. We've had a turbulent, often tumultuous, 13 year history characterized by much inter-cine strife. At present, our voting membership consists of approximately 19 individuals and 25 gay and lesbian groups. In a metropolitan setting that claims to have between 750,000 and 1,000,000 gay and lesbian inhabitants we feel the size of our membership is not so much indicative of people's apathy but rather an unwillingness or even antipathy to get involved in a group that has seen much rancor and personal infighting over the past years.

While C.S.L.D.C. is not a political organization its membership does reflect a variety of political philosophies. Many of the members are "new" joiners having eschewed involvement in the movement in the past. Many of the new C.S.L.D.C. members felt that a new approach was needed for the March and Rally in 1982. In the past years the Committee was often monopolized by splinter groups with small constituencies, their representatives were frequently vocal, articulate and adept in intimidating other less vocal, more conservative members. Very often "mainstream" gays and lesbians were ignored, overruled or verbally assaulted.

It was the consensus of the C.S.L.D.C. Board this year that the Committee needed to redirect its energies in trying to attract a larger audience than had been reached in the past. The focus was on rebuilding an organization and performing outreach to individuals and groups not only in the metropolitan New York area but outside the city and state as well. In some measure we have been successful in both of these areas.

We realized from the outset that there would be difficulties and some individuals or groups would not like the new direction that C.S.L.D.C. was taking. Unanimity was never expected as a goal but a diverse representation of many individuals and groups from the New York gay and lesbian community who would work together to ensure a successful March and Rally was hoped for.

The theme for 1982 as chosen by a large majority of C.S.L.D.C. members is "A Heritage of Pride." How to implement that theme? We took a look around the country at the major cities that have gay and lesbian events such as in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago and Houston. These cities have "parades" and "celebrations" with themes that affirm the beauty, dignity and diversity of gay and lesbian people. C.S.L.D.C. decided to stick with "March" and "Rally" in deference to the fact that New York City does not yet have a gay rights ordinance. But some changes were introduced. Such as having colorful but socially relevant floats in the March and the sponsorship of the first Stonewall Gay and Lesbian Marching Band Competition. C.S.L.D.C. also streamlined the Rally by authorizing four keynote speakers (two men and two women). The entertainment was upgraded from previous years and will feature Robin Tyler, the nationally famous lesbian-feminist comedienne. The New York City Gay Men's Chorus and other local performers will also be on hand. All of the aforementioned changes were approved by the C.S.L.D.C. Board and sizable majorities of C.S.L.D.C. members.

That is the background that leads us into our discussion of David France and his article. Mr. France came to C.S.L.D.C. as a representative of the Lavender Left Network and became active in the Program/Rally Committee. Like all new members he agreed to work with the other C.S.L.D.C. members towards achieving the goal of C.S.L.D.C., i.e. a successful March and Rally in 1982. In April of this year Mr. France approached several C.S.L.D.C. members about an article that would appear in a future issue of GCM discussing both sides of the March/Parade issue. Once the article was written, published and read by C.S.L.D.C. members it was quickly apparent that a reply was in order.

In paragraph one of the article Mr. France asserts that the changes that are made are considered by many C.S.L.D.C. members to be a threat to the Stonewall. Mr. France does not define "many" and implies that a large number of C.S.L.D.C. members have opposed the changes. This is not the case. An examination of the C.S.L.D.C. minutes from January through April, 1982 clearly shows that on major decisions — with 2 or 3 exceptions — almost all motions passed either unanimously or at least by a 2/3 majority. Mr. France further suggests that change is antithetical to what happened 13 years ago at the Stonewall. We at C.S.L.D.C. disagree. We regard change as a healthy process and feel it indicates a growing, viable organization.

In paragraph two Mr. France mentions that the budget of C.S.L.D.C. was raised from $6500 in 1981 to $65,000 in 1982. True enough. But what he failed to add was that C.S.L.D.C. will in all likelihood not reach that goal. Why? Because fundraising has always been difficult in New York City. Part of the reason has been that contributors to gay and lesbian causes have rarely been thanked. The attitude of some individuals and some groups has been, at best, condescending, and at worst, contemptible towards fundraising. They couldn't be bothered with such formalities and just expected the money to flow in. It did and invariably the money that was donated was either misspent or simply disappeared. Regrettably New York has always had its fair share of gay and lesbian cliques who had plenty of political accountability but little or no financial accountability. The word soon spread — don't give to gay and lesbian causes! C.S.L.D.C. has tried to change that image by initiating an active and systematic fundraising campaign. We thank all contributors and we promise an accounting of all funds received and spent to be published after the March and Rally. While some may carp over New York's budget being $65,000 it is useful to examine what other cities with budgets for gay and lesbian pride events and parades are spending: San Francisco-$110,000, Los Angeles-$180,000, Houston-$125,000, and Dallas-$90,000. New York's $65,000 looks bush-league in comparison.

In paragraph four a representative of C.R.A.S.H. called Dina is quoted as saying "We don't have the liberty to parade." For the record there is no Dina. Due to a typo her real name is Gina Quattrochi and she is a member of C.S.L.D.C. As for her statement about liberty we part company. We do have the liberty. Unlike in Russia, Cuba or even in Mexico where gays and lesbians have virtually no liberties and can be incarcerated we can be visible on the streets here. The growth of the March and Rally has demonstrated that increasing numbers of people are coming out of the closet and participating in gay and lesbian pride activities without fear of harassment or discrimination. This year it is estimated that between 75,000 and 100,000 men and women will march and attend the Rally. Many come from out of town or even from out of state. They come to New York City not to join a funeral dirge, wear sackcloth or engage in polemics. They come to celebrate and whether the event is a "March" or a "Parade" is inconsequential to them. These people are taking advantage of the one opportunity they have during the year to make a political statement by taking to the streets and celebrating who they are.

In paragraph five Chuck Tyson, who was a past co-coordinator of C.S.L.D.C., was quoted in stating his opposition to the proposed changes this year. Mr. Tyson, while expressing reservations over these changes, has charged that Mr. France misquoted him, took his remarks out of context and deliberately distorted them.

In paragraphs six through eight Mr. France quotes Craig Rodwell, proprietor of the Oscar Wilde Memorial Bookstore here in New York, at length about the "commercial" overtones of the March. Mr. Rodwell specifically objects to bars and baths who, if allowed to submit floats, will "put their names all over the floats." If Mr. France had taken the time to check the guidelines for float submissions and shared this information with Mr. Rodwell, they would have both seen that the criteria is fairly stringent in what it will and won't allow. What C.S.L.D.C. won't permit are entries that are commercial, offensive (no nudity) or obscene. Mr. Rodwell goes on to express his disdain for C.S.L.D.C. and its approach in obtaining financial support from businesses. We find it somewhat ironic that Mr. Rodwell should harangue against gay-owned businesses when he happens to be a businessman himself. We also find it somewhat hypocritical that Mr. Rodwell should criticize C.S.L.D.C. in trying to raise funds when he has taken C.S.L.D.C. buttons in the past and sold them on a 60-40% consignment basis. While we admire Mr. Rodwell's early contributions to C.S.L.D.C. we regret his cynical attitude and depreciatory comments on the present state of the annual March and Rally.

In paragraph nine Mr. France states that C.S.L.D.C. is offering co-sponsorship of the banners with businesses who wish to donate the cost of banners thus "increasing the association between the movement and the mostly male business ventures in the city." Partially true but again Mr. France omits to mention that all of C.S.L.D.C.'s printing is done at cost with labor donated by Tower Press, a lesbian-feminist-owned and operated press, here in New York City.

In paragraph thirteen Gina from C.R.A.S.H. is quoted as saying that "Stonewall was about a group of street transvestites . . . and about a black transvestite who got busted and tried to escape through the precinct window and got impaled on a fence." Ed Murphy who was at the Stonewall in June, 1969 disagrees and states that gay black and white men were also at the Stonewall in addition to the transvestites. Furthermore, it wasn't until 1970 — almost a year after Stonewall — that the second incident took place. It wasn't a black transvestite but a Venezuelan alien who accidentally fell off the ledge at the old Charles Street Station House. According to Mr. Murphy the Venezuelan was afraid he wouldn't get his green card permitting him to stay and work in this country. Any honest and hard-working journalist could have verified this information with any number of witnesses who had lived or worked in the Village in the late 60's or early 70's. For Mr. France not to have checked his facts is inexcusable and as a purported journalist he should have known better.

In paragraph fifteen Mr. France states Betsy Rodgers, the female co-coordinator of C.S.L.D.C., has taken a back-seat role to Tony Gambino, the male co-coordinator of C.S.L.D.C. in the organization of the 1982 March and Rally. This is categorically untrue. Betsy has been consulted on all major decisions and has taken an active part not only in the C.S.L.D.C. Board but also in the Media and Outreach Committee. What Mr. France failed to report is that she has been enrolled in night courses and has found it difficult to attend C.S.L.D.C. meetings on a regular basis.

In paragraph sixteen Gina from C.R.A.S.H. asks a presumably rhetorical question — "If Anita Bryant came out as a lesbian would we put her on the stage (at the Rally)?" The responses of several C.S.L.D.C. members who were strawpollled were in the affirmative. Yes, we would invite her to the Rally in order to provide her with a forum so she could recant her homophobic sins of the past. Her appearance would unquestionably garner national media coverage as a "born again" lesbian and would cause a great deal of embarrassment to our New Right enemies. It might also provide the impetus to Dade County, Florida to get started on a new gay rights ordinance.

This has been a lengthy rebuttal to Mr. France and his article, but we felt it was necessary to provide our side. Many C.S.L.D.C. members, especially those who were misquoted, have vocally objected to Mr. France's article and some view it as divisive and as a sectarian use of the gay media for self-promotion. At a recent meeting of C.S.L.D.C. and a large number of members called Mr. France to account. The rhetoric of Mr. France and the affected amazement of his allies at the vigorous response of so many C.S.L.D.C. members to his inaccurate and misleading article seems designed to place Mr. France in the role of martyr. We are confident that there are no McCarthyites in the Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee. If there were Mr. France and others of his ilk would have been purged a long time ago. Mr. France will be encouraged to stay and offer constructive input. But all C.S.L.D.C. members will be advised to be wary of Mr. France's "respect" for the truth and should ask him point-blank if he intends to accurately quote them in his next piece of reportage.

It was Mr. France's prerogative to write his article as best served his needs. It is our right to respond in such a fashion that serves our needs. We have done so. C.S.L.D.C. is forging ahead and does not intend to engage in further polemics. We have too much important work to do. We hope to see as many gay and lesbian people as possible in New York City on June 27, 1982 for the March and Rally. Come and celebrate with us.

P.S. To demonstrate our solidarity for gay and lesbian pride activity in other cities, C.S.L.D.C. intends to have marching contingents in both Boston on June 19 and in Washington, D.C. on June 20.

charges dismissed

Dear GCN

Just for the record, I was not "acquitted" of the four felony counts against me for broadcasting a consumers' guide to sexual lubricants as Vol. 9 No. 46 stated.

The charges, distributing obscene material to juveniles, were dismissed by a courageous judge. An appeal by Hamilton County Prosecutor Simon L. Leis Jr. is in state court, and we hope to know this summer whether WAIF FM and I will have to stand trial.

The University of Cincinnati has agreed to reinstate my "Sexual Subcultures" Community course this fall, but I had to drop demands for damages or they might have appealed the federal court's decision.

I am trying to raise legal fees and scholarships through Public Interest, GCGC, Box 19158, Cincinnati, OH 45219.

I appreciate David Morris' reference to me as a gay journalist as well as an activist, since never before in GCN's elaborate coverage of my tribulations was I credited as a GCN contributor. I'm proud of my 8-year affiliation with the nation's only weekly newspaper [sic!]

Acquitted

No. 43). The charges, which are more serious than those leading to the two acquittals, refer to an article on fist fucking published in April.

The trial resulted from the government's appeal of an acquittal handed down in December, 1979 (see GCN, Vol. 9, No. 19). Since Canadian law permits the government to appeal a verdict of not guilty in any criminal case, The Body Politic could legally be forced to stand trial a third time on the same charges. According to Body Politic news editor Chris Bearchell, prosecutors have said they would decide by June 25 whether to appeal the second acquittal.

Mercer had dismissed charges on June 4 against Gerald Hannon, Ed Jackson and Ken Popert, officers of Pink Triangle Press, on the grounds that the corporation that owns the paper, and not individual officers of the corporation, is responsible for the paper's contents.

Judge Mercer stated in his five-page decision that he did not need to consider the question introduced by Clayton Ruby, Body Politic's attorney, of whether the paper was protected in this case by the freedom of the press provision of Canada's new Charter of Rights.

The paper's legal expenses during the long and costly court proceedings were paid in large part from donations made by supporters in Canada and other countries. Funds are still needed for the coming trial on the new charges of printing obscene material. Donations may be sent to the Body Politic Free the Press Fund, Box 7289, Station A, Toronto, Ontario, M5W 1X9, Canada.

GAY PRIDE MONTH

June
1980

This year the big Gay Pride Month celebrations will be spilling over into the many recreational haunts of our community. The 1980 Parade and Festival organizers are encouraging all club owners and bartenders to involve their patrons by decorating their premises, staging special events and joining in as a unit in the biggest gay and lesbian celebration Los Angeles has ever seen.

Decorate wild and gay!

Let the creative spirit of gayness go wild. Convert the look of your establishment with a festive new decor, brighter and more exciting than any other holiday. This celebration is OURS. Special awards for club decors will be given out at the big Festival on June 21. To participate simply fill out the coupon below.

Throw a great gay party!

There's no better reason for staging a big bash for your patrons than Gay Pride Month 1980! Capture the spirit with your imagination. A dance, a buffet, special contests or entertainment. Let us know about it so we can help you publicize it. Build on the spirit of unity in our community then bring the spirit of your club and your patrons into the big Gay Parade on June 22.

Form your own parade unit!

Many of your patrons have never marched in a Gay Pride Parade and would enjoy participating in a contingent from their favorite club. They want to march with friends. You can make that possible. Prepare a banner, hand out T-shirts with your logo on it, provide a sea of balloons, be original, build a float if you can, or sponsor a joint float with other establishments... whatever you do, your customers will be glad you did. To enter a unit in the Parade fill out the form below.

NEW YORK GAY PRIDE PARADE

GAY PRIDE '80 COMMITTEE

Dear Mary Friend:

Rhode Island's first Lesbian and Gay Male Pride Week is scheduled for the week of June 21 through June 28, 1980. In recognition that 1980 has been designated by the United Nations as the 'Year of the Family', the theme of this week will be "We Are Family, We Are One". The enclosed flyer describes the various special events which will occur during this week. We hope that you will be able to participate in each of those celebrations.

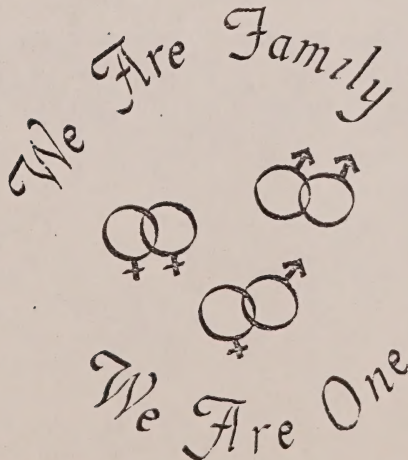

The high point of Lesbian and Gay Male Pride Week will be the fifth Annual Rhode Island Gay Pride March on June 28. This year's March will assemble at Cathedral Square at twelve noon. From Cathedral Square, the march will proceed through Downtown Providence to the State House where a rally is scheduled for 2:00 p.m.. The rally will include a number of speakers and music.

Like last year, this years march will be organized into three sections. The first section will be for members of the Gay Community which will be followed by a section for individuals in support of Gay Rights. The last section of the march is reserved for representatives of organizations which support Gay Rights. The Pride 80 Committee hopes that these plans will encourage the involvement of a broad segment of Rhode Island's Citizens.

You are invited to participate in this celebration of Lesbians and Gay Men. As in the past, signs will be provided to participants. If you plan to represent an organization, we would be pleased to make an appropriate sign for you. If this is the case, please contact Rev. George McDermott at 272-9247.

Sincerely,

Gay Pride 80 Committee

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

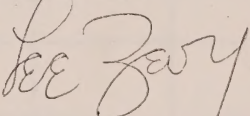

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy
Identity House
544 Sixth Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10011

Thank you for cooperating in this study.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Lee Zevy'. The signature is stylized with a large 'L' and a long, sweeping underline that extends to the right.

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

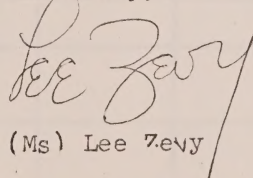

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

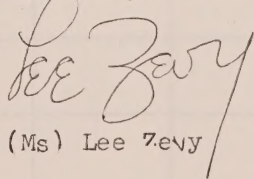

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy

Thank you for cooperating in this study.

Sincerely,

(Ms) Lee Zevy

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

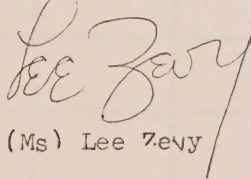

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy

Thank you for cooperating in this study.

Sincerely,

(Ms) Lee Zevy

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

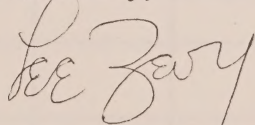

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy
Identity House

New York, N.Y. 10011

Thank you for cooperating in this study.

Sincerely,

(Ms) Lee Zevy

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

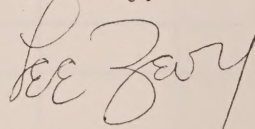

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

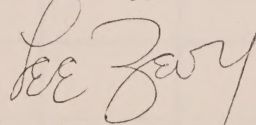

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address:

Hi,

I am a lesbian graduate student conducting a research study to determine self perceptions of lesbians and gay men.

The study is completely anonymous so that there will be no way of identifying respondents.

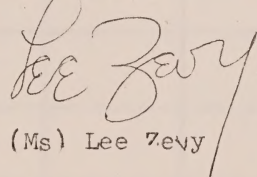

Please be open and honest about your answers; there are no right or wrong answers.

When you finish the questions, please return the form to the person from whom you got it and they will return it to me.

If you are interested in the results of the study a copy can be obtained by sending a self addressed envelope to the following address: (Ms) Lee Zevy

Thank you for cooperating in this study.

Sincerely,

(Ms) Lee Zevy

REALIGNMENT OF THE GAY FORCES
IN LIGHT OF THE EXPERIENCE OF CSLDC '76

A Position Paper submitted to the CSLDC '76 Steering Committee,
21 June 1976

Sisters, Brothers, Comrades, Friends and Lovers--

Although the 7th Annual Christopher Street Liberation Day--Gay Pride March is less than a week away, and it might seem that this position paper is a little late, the historic circumstances of the present struggle demand clarification, analysis and response. In keeping with the consistency of our Christian revolutionary principles, we, members of the Community of the Love of Christ and co-workers with others in the coalition of CSLDC '76, are moved to share this perspective with members of the Gay Movement in the Steering Committee.

This meeting will mark the last regular meeting of this democratically elected Gay Coalition steering committee before the March. If we are to learn anything at all from experience; from the recent and continuing struggle, one clear thing is that we must bring to the consciousness of the Gay Movement the accountability that so-called "leaders" of the Movement owe to their and our base. The absence of accountability to one's base leads directly to opportunism, infighting, and eventually to a nihilistic and infantile dissolution of revolutionary determination. The attached article by Jo Freeman, "The Tyranny of Structurelessness," relates directly to this question.

What we must learn in the Gay Movement today, is that if we view ourselves as liberationists, then there is no such thing as "do your own thing." As liberationists we must be revolutionaries who are clear as to who our principal enemy is: the patriarchy with its manifestations of sexism, racism, classism, militarism, and monopoly state capitalism. All our efforts must be concentrated on defeating this leviathan-beast in all of its forms. Anyone who either speaks of "doing your own thing" or who disrupts the already fragile unity within the movement in the face of the oppressor, must either be lacking in any true liberationist analysis due to being cut off from the broad working-class base of potential revolution, or (and the two are not mutually exclusive) must be functioning as either the lackey of the ruling-class or a conscious agent provocateur in the service of the police state.

We hear lots of talk of the desire for unity; but, in reality, it is impossible to possess unity without accountability of leadership to its base. We are certain that many in the Gay Movement subscribe to this principle; however, the lines of definition are drawn around the question--"Who are we accountable to?"

Although many in the Gay Movement are self-proclaimed "liberationists" and "revolutionaries," contradictorily to this fact, their class-allegiance is to the class of the petit-bourgeoisie and to their déclassé lumpen allies. (Please note, however: we do not refer to working-class people reduced to lumpen economic status by the internal contradictions of a dying capitalism; nor do we refer to street-hustlers per se, who are indeed, as Mother Teresa of Calcutta said when visiting our Church's mission working with street-hustlers in Philadelphia, truly perceived even by most Gay people as "the untouchables of America"—at least to judge by the unwillingness of most of the Gay Movement and most of the Gay Churches to deal with the particular problems of hustlers. Indeed, the street-hustlers with whom we have been working of late, clearly state, almost without exception, that they do that form of work—and they clearly perceive it as work—simply because in a heterosexist, homophobic and collapsing capitalist economy, they are otherwise unemployable. However, their identification is clearly working-class; not lumpen.

(We do, however, refer to that sub-strata, represented by those who, at recent meetings, have clearly attacked unemployment and social security recipients for having worked, and thereby trashed the working-class directly. Insofar as we have known some of these people for years, in some cases on both coasts, we know that they are not stupid: and therefore we perceive them as having consciously attacked the revolutionary base of all humanistic liberation movements—Gay Liberation included—by attacking the working-class!)

CLARIFICATION

We don't want to confuse friends with enemies, hence we clearly recognise four distinct elements in the Gay Movement: First, the revolutionary liberationists who integrate theory with practice; Secondly, pseudo-liberationists who don't integrate theory with practice; Third, liberals in all shades and degrees; and Fourth, political opportunists, petit-bourgeois and lumpen elements, and police-state infiltrators. We exclude from this list those still-closeted Gays who do not identify with the Movement at all. In summing up: It is essential that there be brought to the consciousness of the Gay Movement the necessity for liberationist "leaders" and/or "spokespersons" to account for their practice to their base.

There are definite class-divisions and different class-allegiances in the Gay Movement: and there are definitely counter-revolutionary and counter-liberationist agents in our midst, who have as their aim the destruction of the liberationist forces. The Latin American educator and liberationist-theologian, Paulo Friere writes: "...the oppressed, who have adapted to the structure of domination in which they are immersed, and have become resigned to it, are inhibited from waging the struggle for freedom so long as they feel incapable of running the risks it requires. Moreover, their struggle for freedom threatens not only the oppressor, but also their own oppressed comrades who are fearful of still greater oppression. When they discover within themselves the yearning to be free, they perceive that this yearning can be transformed into reality only when the same yearning is aroused in their comrades. But while dominated by the fear of freedom they refuse to appeal to others, or to listen to the appeals of others, or even to the appeals of their own conscience. They prefer gregariousness to authentic comradeship; they prefer the security of conformity with their state of unfreedom to the creative communion produced by freedom and even the very pursuit of freedom." (Pedagogy of the Oppressed)

Written in regard to the liberation struggles of Latin America and the Third World, Friere's remarks could well be applied to much of the Gay Community: the compromises rendering us ineffective, the occasional backroom deals with politicians. However, just as the Movement is beginning to recover from that collaborationist stance this year--by the election of this democratic steering committee and the ousting of the syndicate forces--suddenly we are under heavy attack from persons indulging themselves in what Lenin describes so well as "left-wing infantilism."

Some perspective on what has been happening in the Gay Movement surrounding this year's Stonewall Commemoration of Gay Pride is clearly called for.

On a nationwide basis, there has been more disruption and division within the planning for the various marches and parades than has ever happened before. In San Francisco, ever since 1972, there has always been a division--usually with some accusations, rarely documented clearly, but with good reason for suspecting the work of provocateurs--into at least two committees. This year it was worse than usual. In Los Angeles this year, there are two separate parades on two separate dates. In Boston and Philadelphia, although the rifts were sufficiently healed that there was only the one parade, up until the starting gate was raised nobody was really sure that that would be the case. In New York City, of course, for three years now there has been division with a Lesbian Separatist parade or rally the day before the Christopher Street Liberation Day March. This year is no different in that respect. However, other changes this year are really drastic.

Since the Christopher Street Liberation Day '76 transformation by a democratic town meeting on March 1st of this year, the Steering Committee has been fighting on the legal front, the political front, and struggling internally against the agony of financial hardship. We knew very clearly, from the time of Mike Umbers' revelation of his interest in the rump-committee on 13 March, that the struggle over the Gay Pride March wasn't over; and we knew, and know, that ultimately the political struggle will determine the final direction and power of Gay Liberation.

It is interesting to note that while the variously named "Gay Poor People's Fifth Avenue Walk," "Fifth Avenue Gay Walk," "Gay Bicentennial Millenium Commission," "Gay Poor People's Bicentennial Millenium", etc. (all names culled from their various leaflets) was originally proposed by the Gay Post Collective and some of their hangers-on as a separate, but non-competitive event, it was only after the mob-controlled rump-committee (privately incorporated as C.S.L.D., Inc. and fraudulantly raising funds at this time by advertising their medallion sales as going to fund this year's March--which they are not doing) withdrew its competitive parade, and the democratically elected Christopher Street Liberation Day Committee '76 (CSLDC '76) Steering Committee was finally able to get around to actual parade committee business rather than having to deal with the syndicate & police-state created diversion and disruption, that one week later the Gay Post Collective people began disrupting the meetings, threatening to trash the stage, attacking members of the Committee, and again creating the type of disruption that's taking precious time away from the real business of the parade.

Indeed, precisely like the syndicate and its rump-committee serving the police-state from the right-wing end, whether or not any Gay Post Collective members are conscious and deliberate agents of the police-state is almost irrelevant....for the left-wing infantilism of the sort that collective and their hangers-on indulge in is clearly diversionary and disruptive, is clearly provocative, and clearly serves nothing but counter-revolutionary and counter-liberationist ends.

As for their continued claim to speak for all Gay poor people, it might be pointed out that about one-third of the Steering Committee members are on S.S.I., Social Security, Welfare or Unemployment--and the Gay Post people clearly do not speak for us...particularly when Jon-Jon Dewey attacks people on unemployment or regular social security for having worked before--a clear and direct attack on working-class unity.

Further, the bigoted and oppressive comments made by Gay Post Collective member, Bishop Walter Breen (a/k/a John Zimmer Eglington) at a recent GAA Forum clearly shows the ruling-class' method of dividing the oppressed. If all sub-cultures and life-styles within the Gay Community can not honestly struggle together; but are attacked in a bigotted manner by other sub-groups' self-appointed representatives, it serves only the interests of the hetero-sexist ruling class and their police-state. (We refer to Breen/Eglinton's statements, when he was speaking as a representative of the pederastic community of Gays, in which he attacked S/M Gays in a vicious and bigotted manner.)

(As for some of the direct accusations made against the Community of the Love of Christ by Gay Post people--primarily Jon-Jon Dewey and Michael (?), for the most part we would prefer to ignore them as being beneath contempt. However, that the record may clearly show the truth in the matter: (1) Dewey accuses the CLC of having "ripped off the Gay House Fund." Absolutely false! The Community of the Love of Christ Gay House Project was planned for New York while we were still in Los Angeles: and it is only now coming to some fruition with a Mission to street-hustlers uptown--what we're calling the Emmaus Project. To date, not one cent has been brought in to the Fund: although, if we locate the proper building, we have fair assurance of it being funded. We have never taken one cent from Gay Post towards this project: and indeed, as far back as November, did not invite the Gay Post people to the planning committee and staff meetings--although they came anyway--simply due to vast differences in approach. (2) The Gay Post crowd makes a big point about our past connection with Maverick, which was published by Umbers. During the period of brief connection, shortly after we moved back to New York, we put out a total of four issues over a period of four months--not the one year Dewey claims we were connected. We worked for Maverick while we could use it as a vehicle to disseminate information and a revolutionary Gay political perspective--and, indeed, it was through Maverick that the Gay revolutionary anti-militarist perspective got its first major coverage with 28,000 copies of that Editorial distributed nationally through the paper and the Editorial then reprinted by several Gay organizations and quoted in other Gay publications. It is interesting to note that while we were connected with Maverick--and had absolute editorial control, with Umbers having agreed to that and having followed through on his agreement--which was from issue 6 through 9, Gay Post made sure that we would place their free ads in the paper. Seems if anyone's two-faced on this subject, it's that collective. Finally, on this subject, it was precisely because we had the Maverick connection that we found out about the syndicate-backed rump-committee. As a result of that, we contacted the Secretary of State of New York's office and dealt with Mr. Cuomo to counteract the impact of that corporation and we were able to warn and inform the democratically elected CSLDC '76 Steering Committee which acted thereupon. We also broke with Maverick in protest over Umbers' backing of the rump-committee: and it hasn't come out since. (3) Gay Post and Dewey make a major point about the C.L.C. "not having any followers." Something that all should understand--we are not a Gay Church trying to build a mass-movement ourselves, but a Radical Gay Religious Order under vows and a stated Rule of Life. Although we are a Gay Religious Order within the Syro-Chaldean Evangelical Catholic Communion (Nestorian), we are ourselves Ecumenical as well as Apostolic and Liturgical in nature. Elsewhere, we do have a few small congregations: but our primary purpose is not to build parochial works per se, but rather to serve the Gay Community and the nonviolent revolutionary movement with a disciplined Christian cadre for service to the people and direct action. This, indeed, is our understanding of the meaning of radical Biblical discipleship within the Gay Community: To bring the Bread of Life to those who have been offered nothing but the stones of oppression: To live the Love of Christ who is our Life, our Love and our Liberation as strength for struggle! As such, the whole question of "numbers" is unimportant: what is far more important is a track-record of revolutionary action in accord with the mandate of the Bible, "To bring the Good News to the poor: to proclaim liberty to the captives, new vision to the unseeing, freedom to those in bondage, liberation to the oppressed, the time of liberation to all" (Luke 4: 16-17). It is, indeed, due to our revolutionary understanding of the Bible and our radical approach to Christian discipleship that many of the so-called Gay Churches, as well as most establishment non-Gay ones, react negatively to us. But the Cross of Christ is both liberation to the oppressed and a scandal to the establishment: and in the Risen Life coming from that Cross we take our stand. Interestingly, in light of the current attacks on the C.L.C. by Gay Post Collective members, it might be pointed out that last year Gay Post asked us--we didn't approach them about it--to do the dedication service on the old Stonewall: and as recently as three months ago, before all of this counter-revolutionary nonsense on their part, they asked us again!)

WHERE WE ARE NOW

Having made a complete analysis of what form of struggle is necessary in the Gay Community, we must begin to work towards this manifestation. In this connection, it is necessary to briefly diverge. For the sake of the Christians and other concerned individuals on the Steering Committee, it is necessary to explain the relationship between revolutionary liberatarian-socialist thought and its material base with the radical Christian perspective of the C.L.C. as shown in this position paper.

It is our Faith that by the Incarnation of God-in-Humanity in Jesus of Nazareth, Divinity truly entered into the world and matter by the agency of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Wholeness. By the Blood of Jesus on Calvary, entering into the Earth, all of matter was sanctified and redeemed: and by the power of the Holy Spirit coming from the Risen and Ascended Christ, all of humanity and even inorganic matter is being transformed--coming by the power of the Spirit and the struggle of the people to that radical transformation that the Bible variously describes as the Kingdom of God, the Kingdom of Heaven, the "reign of the people" (Dan. 7:27)--the universal androgynous community of sister/brotherhood, the commonwealth of all.

Such a radical Biblical perspective enables us to stand with other liberationist revolutionaries in coalition, with the framework to raise the spiritual-political consciousness of the masses in struggle against the monopolistic control of society and profit from the sexist, racist and class divisions artificially imposed upon our common humanity.

We have always had the farsight, as well as the analysis, to know that the Gay Community doesn't belong to any particular person or political group. Therefore, we have no privately invested interest in the movement. What we have set out to do is to develop a real Gay Movement around the needs for freedom, social equality, and economic fulfillment: A real Gay Movement, firmly based in the revolutionary class of the Gay Community, is the only safeguard and guarantee against the formation of recurring petit-bourgeois cliques in the Movement. When people are highly conscious of their needs, they will be conscious of the fact when their needs are not being met.

The result of the disruptive attacks on the Gay Movement coming from both right-and-left-wing sources (on the right, the mob-controlled rump-committee; from the left-extremists and adventurers, the Gay Post controlled "Gay Walk" and their hangers-on), has been that CSLDC '76 is on the verge of going under both economically and due to the dissension and divisions that have taken up so much valuable time.

With less than one week to go, we must quickly institute stiff austerity measures as regards the apportionment of our time and energies, to prevent this disaster!

It was a great accomplishment, as well as victory, when the eroding attacks

(more)

We must resist these distractions, these disruptive and fragmenting diversionary efforts, and work for a full nonviolent revolutionary program of liberation, including: The unification of the Gay Community; the clarification of the class identity of Gays as an oppressed people; the simultaneous resistance to our victimization by the monopoly capital police state and development of links of solidarity with other oppressed peoples so that together we can achieve a truly transcendent society, a liberated universal androgynous community of sister/brotherhood, a commonwealth of all people in which our diversity exists in a plurality of unity. United we stand--divided, they'll pick us off one by one!

The Tyranny of Structurelessness

by
Jo Freeman

Contrary to what we would like to believe, there is no such thing as a structureless group. Any group of people of whatever nature that comes together for any length of time for any purpose will inevitably structure itself in some fashion. The structure may be flexible; it may vary over time; it may evenly or unevenly distribute tasks, power, and resources over the members of the group. But it will be formed regardless of the abilities, personalities, or intentions of the people involved. The very fact that we are individuals, with different talents, predispositions, and backgrounds makes this inevitable. Only if we refused to relate or interact on any basis whatsoever could we approximate structurelessness--and that is not the nature of a human group.

This means that to strive for a structureless group is as useful and as deceptive as to aim at an "objective" news story, "value-free" social science, or a "free" economy.

The idea becomes a smoke screen for the strong or the lucky to establish unquestioned hegemony over others. This hegemony can be so easily established because the idea of "structurelessness" does not prevent the formation of informal structures, only formal ones. Thus structurelessness becomes a way of making power, and within the Women's Movement is usually most strongly advocated by those who are the most powerful (whether they are conscious of their power or not). As long as the structure of the group is informal, the rules of how decisions are made are known only to a few and awareness of power is curtailed to those who know the rules. Those who do not know the rules and are not chosen for initiation must remain in confusion, or suffer from paranoid delusions that something is happening of which they are not quite aware.

For everyone to have the opportunity to be involved in a given group and to participate in its activities, the structure must be explicit, not implicit. The rules of decision-making must be open and available to everyone, and this can happen only if they are formalised. This is not to say that formalisation of a structure of a group will destroy the informal structure. It usually doesn't. But it does hinder the informal structure from having predominant control and make available some means of attacking it if the people involved are not at least responsible to the needs of the group at large. "Structurelessness" is organisationally impossible. We cannot decide whether to have a structured or structureless group; only whether or not to have a formally structured one.

The informal groups' vested interest will be sustained by the informal structures which exist, and the Movement will have no way of determining who shall exercise power within it. If the Movement continues to deliberately not select who shall exercise power, it does not thereby abolish power. All it does is abdicate the right to demand that those who do exercise power and influence be responsible for it. If the Movement continues to keep power as diffuse as possible because it knows it cannot demand responsibility from those who have it, it does prevent any group or person from totally dominating. But it simultaneously insures that the Movement is as ineffective as possible. Some middle ground between domination and ineffectiveness can and must be found.

[This was written from the context of the organizational form of the women's liberation movement. The original essay by Jo Freeman appeared in the anthology Radical Feminism (edited by Koedt, Levine and Rapone) and was partly reprinted in Ms. magazine July, 1973. We've excerpted only a small section and highly recommend the whole essay.]
